

Baguette Quartette

Baguette Quartet

The Baguette Quartette is a San Francisco Bay Area group that plays music that was heard in Paris between 1920 and 1940 on street corners, in cafes, and in popular dance halls. Led by accordionist Odile Lavault, its repertoire consists of vales musettes, tangos, pasos dobles, fox trots, marches and realistic songs. They have recorded three CDs: "L'air de Paris," "RENDEZ-VOUS," and "CHEZ MOI."
