The Cheeseballs are an eight-piece band including three hot female vocalists, a strong male vocalist and a four-piece rhythm section.

The Cheeseballs

The Cheeseballs. The name says it all: groove, funky danceable FUN! Just ask the tens of thousand of fans who have already experienced them. They'll tell you stories of dancing so hard to We Are Family that getting out of bed the next day was quite an event. That's what The Cheeseballs do; they make you "Shake You Booty" like it hasn't been shaken in years. The band prides itself on serving up a helping of non-stop 70's disco dance-hits and 80's pop classics, with an uncanny knack for performing songs that everyone knows the words to. The result is always an audience dancing and singing along.
