

Christopher

You won't believe your eyes when Christopher steps on stage to perform his amazing routine. Christopher is a complete, one-man ensemble! With life-sized human puppets attached to himself, he performs a show that is unlike what you have ever seen before! Including himself in the line up, Christopher performs with the life-sized dolls dancing to the tune of the Village People's Y.M.C.A. and having the entire "group" dancing with him. Energetic, original, and very funny, it is something you have to see for yourself!
