

"Clairdee's singing truly reflects her spirituality, artistry and personality. She is one of the finest singers on the scene today."

*-John Handy
Legendary alto saxophonist*

"Clairdee's vocals combine sophistication, excitement, warmth and honesty. She's a singer you should definitely hear!"

*-Allen Farnham
Pianist, arranger, producer*

Clairdee

Clairdee consistently dazzles audiences! A consummate performer from concert halls to night clubs, from San Francisco to Tokyo to Paris, her diverse repertoire and styling have made her the perfect choice to open for the Count Basie Orchestra, Gladys Knight, Johnny Mathis, Dionne Warwick and Bobby "Blue" Bland. Additionally, she has performed with noted musicians such as master drummers Billy Higgins and Eddie Marshall; pianists Sir Roland Hanna and Allen Farnham; bassist George Mraz; and saxophonists, John Handy and Eddie Henderson. The San Francisco-based vocalist's performances clearly demonstrate her love of craft and joie de vivre, which she conveys to her audiences. The San Francisco Chronicle has described Clairdee's talent as... "so wistful and hauntingly lush, her voice stops conversation." Locally, jazz enthusiasts have been delighted to hear Clairdee at Yoshi's, Kimball's East, and Mr. E's (Pete Escovedo's nightclub). Her performances at the 1998 TCI San José Jazz Festival and 1999 AT&T San José Jazz Festival respectively prompted standing ovations.
