

CONNIE CHAMPAGNE & THE MAGNUM BRUTES

As you may have heard, there's a "curiously strong" new swing band blazin' the swing trail out of San Francisco featuring the outstanding Vibes playing of Michael Emenau and the beautiful and talented vocalist Connie Champagne. The six piece Connie Champagne and the Magnum Brutes are made up of Connie Champagne, brass players Todd Grady and Bobby Rogers, upright bassist Stu Sperring, drummer Beau Faw, and vibes master Michael Emenau. Their backgrounds and their interests allow the Magnum Brutes to hit the heart with show stoppers like 'Right to Sing the Blues,' and thump the vibes with the fast originals such as Stuart's 'Road Rage.' The Magnum Brutes aren't just about being on stage to do yet another performance, they are an incredibly tight piece that is there to make some music happen.
