

Dave Lemley

As a professional disc jockey for the past 14 years, Dave Lemley provides the experience of thousands of different parties along with the excitement, spontaneity and flexibility that has made him one of the best in the field. Whether it's acting as an MC for events or mixing those dance tunes, Dave's professional ability makes him the perfect choice for any event from the most formal to casual. From inspiring people to participate in dancing or any number of games and activities, down to just playing your requests for great music, Dave has the sensitivity and knowledge it takes to make your event extra fun and extra special. Dave has worked thousands of different events which has allowed him opportunities to work with such artists as: The Steve Miller Band, Huey Lewis and The News, Richard Marx, Tower of Power, KC and the Sunshine Band, The Tubes, Paula Poundstone, Waylon Jennings, The Village People and many other musicians and entertainers. Whether it's the most complex event, or the most basic party, Dave can handle the organization with caterers, photographers, event planners, etc., to make each event a complete success.
