

Funky Blues Messiahs

What do you get when you combine the musical styles of the Neville Brothers, Dr. John, the Meters, and the best party bands from New Orleans? You get Funky Blues Messiahs! Big Daddy Doug Bare cut his musical teeth in the Bourbon Street clubs of New Orleans for many years. He has toured and recorded with such world class acts as John Mayall, Blackfoot, Whiteface and Mother's Finest. The bespeckled New Orleans keyboardist is also the main voice of the band blending his deep blues roots with a soulful cry that keeps listeners coming back for more. The band's repertoire is a blend of funk, rock, R & B, and great dance party music, with originals and popular cover tunes. They recently performed at Universal Studios Florida for several nights during Mardi Gras month. But then, every night is Mardi Gras night with Big Daddy & Funky Blues Messiahs!
