“I just don’t think anyone can learn to sing like this; it must be a natural, organic thing that comes from the heart, from the soul.”

—Myrna Daniels, Los Angeles Jazz Scene September 2001

Jacqui Naylor

Jacqui Naylor performs both nationally and internationally, including a three-month tour in Japan earlier this year followed by an extended run at San Francisco’s renowned Plush Room. She made her debut this fall at several famed West Coast jazz venues including Portland’s Jazz de Opus and Southern California’s Jazz Bakery, Steamers Café and Catalina Bar and Grill. She has also performed in concert at Oakland’s Yoshi’s, New York’s Cabaret Convention at Town Hall, Seattle’s Bumbershoot Festival, San Francisco’s North Beach Festival, the Newport Beach Jazz Festival and the San Jose Jazz Festival.
