

Paula West

"I'm doubtful that anyone is singing better than Paula West these days. In a sublime act at the Plush Room, this extraordinary jazz singer wears each song like perfectly fitted silk."

Steven Winn, San Francisco Chronicle

"'Restless'...is the model of a modern jazz vocalist. She's a fine singer with an excellent sense of time...she delivers the lyrics exquisitely. She's classy."

Lee Jeske, Jazziz Magazine

Paula West

Standard songs with the sass of jazz, a mix that has provided her with engagements at some of the finest cabaret rooms and accolades from the toughest jazz critics. Paula West has learned her craft and honed her talent, finding audiences far beyond her San Francisco home. She has played in New York and Philadelphia, has appeared on both European and American broadcasts as well as appearing in Switzerland and Italy several times. In 1997, she had a sold out debut at the Maison de la Musique in Paris.
