SAN FRANCISCO GUITAR QUARTET

Since its inception in 1997, the San Francisco Guitar Quartet has distinguished itself as a cutting edge ensemble who dedicate themselves to precision and excellence in their performances of contemporary and classic works. The quartet is composed of four San Francisco Bay Area guitarists, Mark Simons, Christopher Hanford, David Dueñas, and Patrick Francis, each of whom have distinguished themselves as soloists and chamber musicians. Ranging from classical style to Spanish & Flamenco, the San Francisco Guitar Quartet provides the right music for any occasion.
