

String Theory Q

String Theory Q, a Bay area chamber music group features two violins, viola, and cello. The classical string quartet is a standard at weddings and other special events. String Theory Q features world class string players from San Francisco, Berkeley, Marin, and Oakland Symphonies. Reasonably priced, easy to work with, and truly a great group of first-rate professional Musicians, String Theory is a definite plus to your live musical needs.

The group performs a full range of the expected wedding repertoire as well as performing a variety of concert string quartet music, light jazz favorites, and a healthy mix of Italian, Irish, American, Jewish, and other folk music favorites. Suitable for any occasion, event, or season, String Theory Q offers a unique and memorable experience for your special event.
