Talk of da Town

From the Paramount Theater to the Palace of Fine Arts, audiences from the Bay Area and beyond have thrilled to the dynamic, soulful sounds of "Talk of da Town". Talk of da Town is a vocal group much in the tradition of such pioneers as the Spaniels, Ravens, Harptones, Five Satins, and the Dells, and are the leading exponents of a vocal group revival. Formed in 1982, Talk of da Town covers elements of traditional gospel, doowop, swing, and classic-vocal group styles. Award-winning singers, they have appeared with an impressive array of major artists: Ray Charles, James Brown, Patti LaBelle, the Temptations, Earth Wind & Fire, Carmen MacRae, Dizzy Gillespie, Tower of Power... and the list goes on. A constant hit at fairs, festivals, private parties and corporate events, the five gracious gentlemen of the group amaze their audiences with sterling intonation, finely crafted arrangements in five-part harmonies, and infectious charm...in short, a world class group and a world class sound! For the very best in classic vocal harmony, you can never go wrong with Talk of da Town.
