

Tito Garcia Y Su Orquesta Internacional

Ernesto “Tito” Garcia “El Doctor de la Salsa” has been playing on the local Salsa scene in the greater San Francisco Bay Area since 1971. Ernesto is an optometrist in the predominately Hispanic Mission District of San Francisco. Orquesta Internacional was created to provide the area with a disciplined, yet energetic type of Salsa to satisfy people of all races. “We play Salsa styles ranging from traditional to free-style, Jazz influence to the popular romantic Salsa and even Salsa in English”, says Tito who, during the last 20 or so years, has experienced the incredible and thoroughly inspiring evolution of the West Coast Salsa scene in the Bay Area. Tito Garcia Y Su Orquesta Internacional play Salsa in the traditional format of the pioneers of this music, and varies in size from 13 to 17 performers depending on the performance requirements. Corners are never cut on their authenticity in terms of instrumentation.
